

Draw over the dotted lines to finish
the letter shapes.
Colour the picture of Noah's Ark.

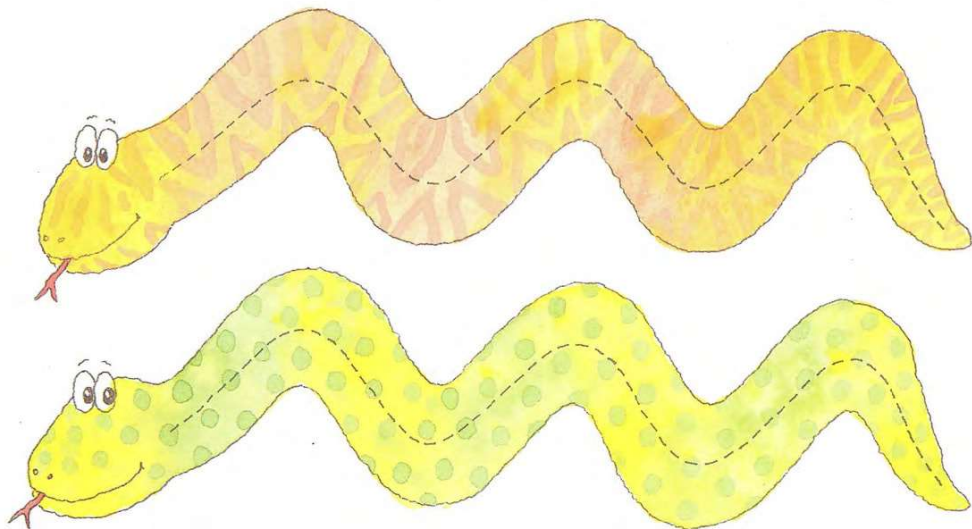

Finger first!
Then draw over the lines from left to right.

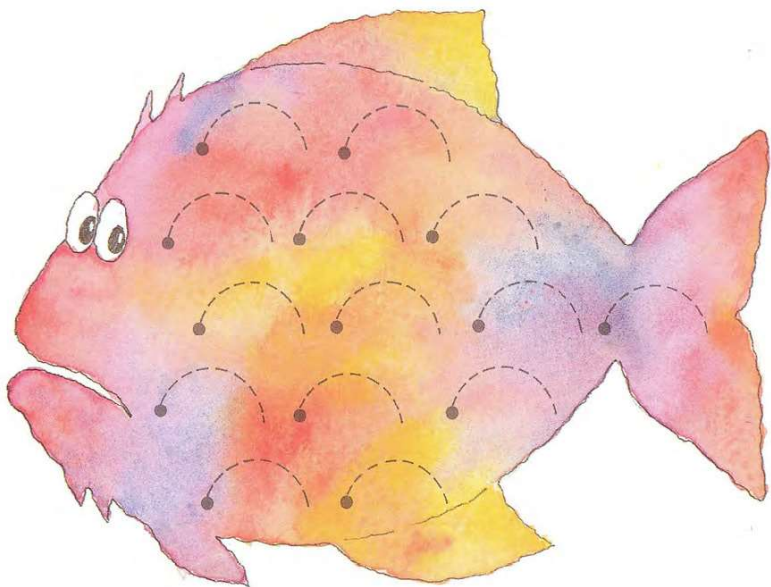

Finger first!
Then draw on the wiggly snakes from left to right.

Draw the scales on the fish.
Remember to start on the dots.

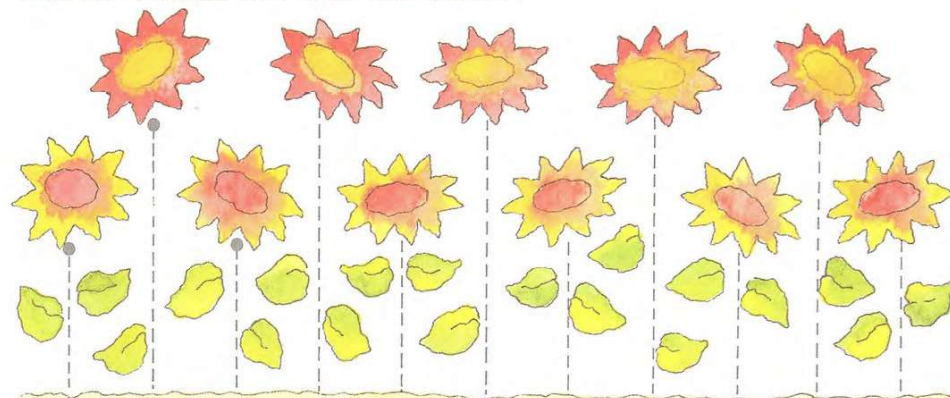

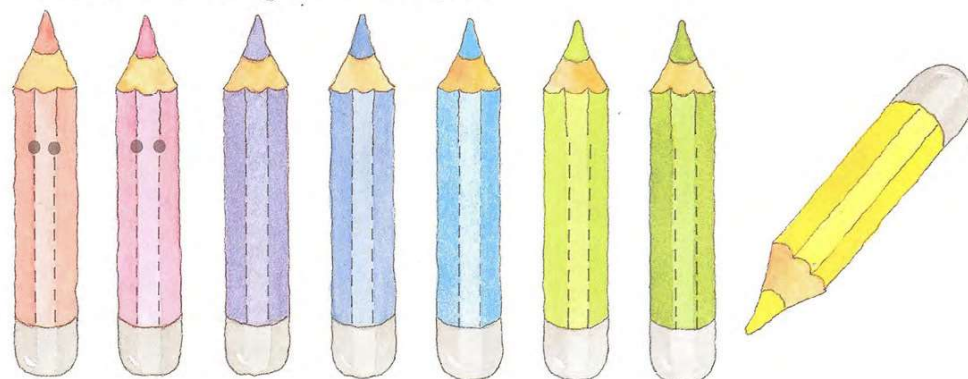

On the next few pages, practise the letter shapes again. Draw over the dotted lines to finish the pictures.

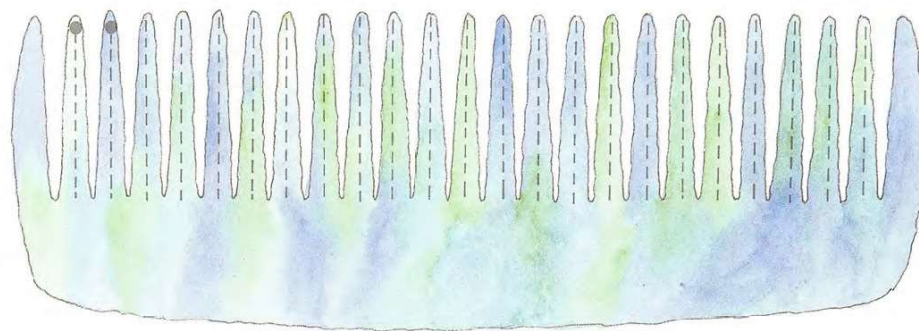

Finger first!
Draw stalks on the flowers.

Finish drawing the crayons.

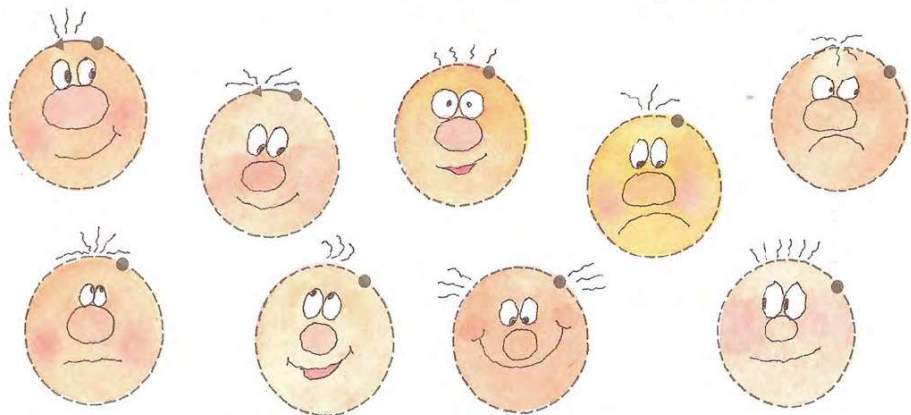

Follow the dotted lines on the comb.

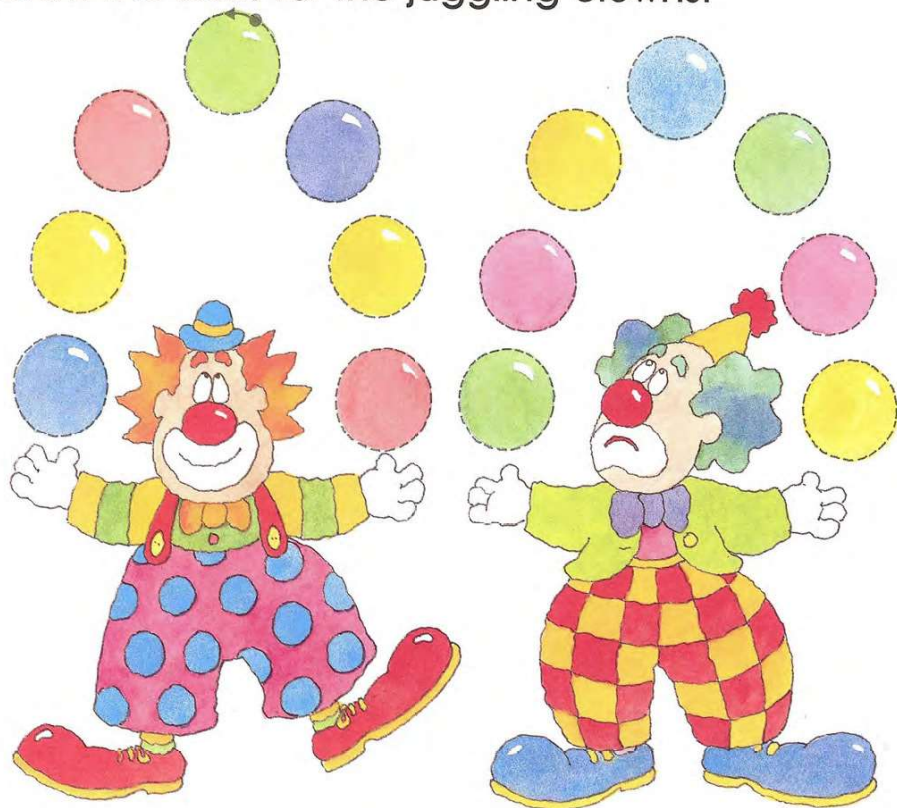

Finger first!

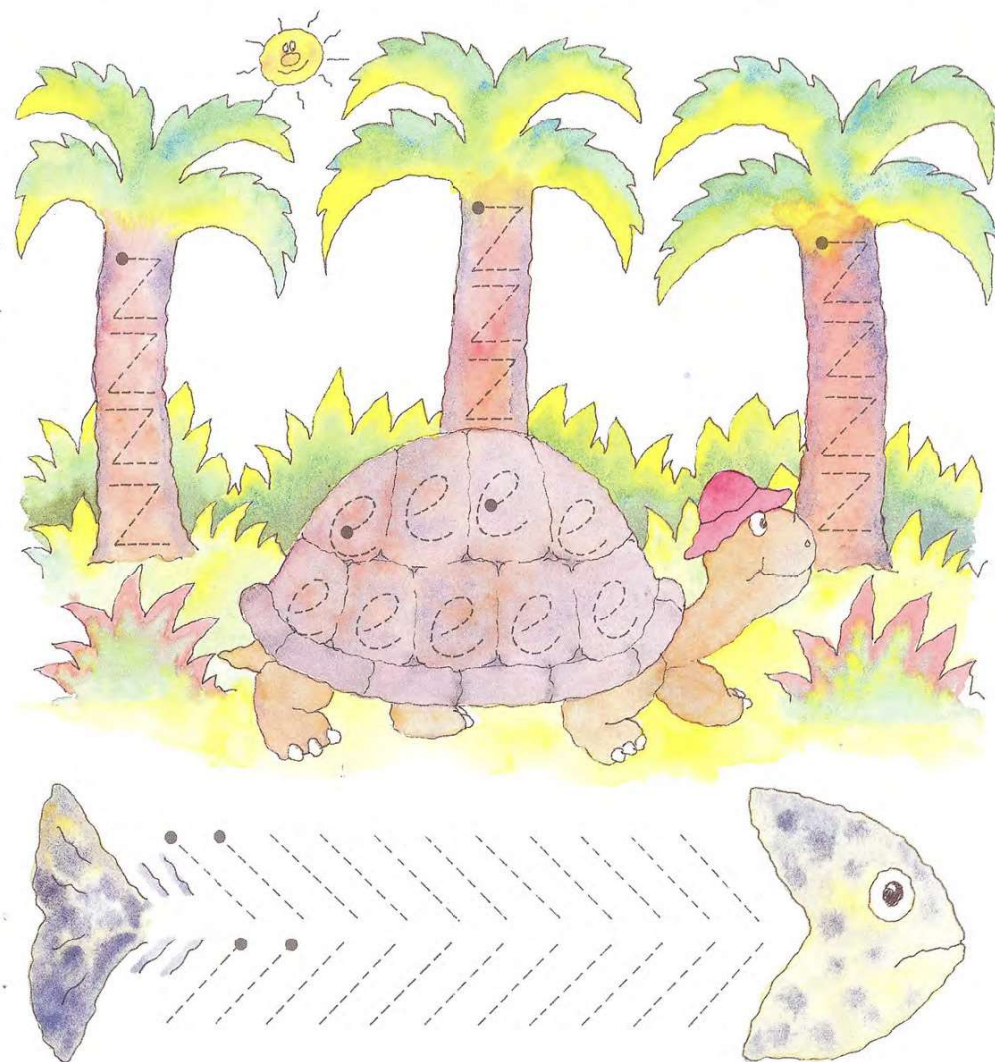

Start on the dot to finish each funny face.

Draw the balls for the juggling clowns.

Follow the dotted lines to draw e, z or x shapes.

Writing

Finish drawing the birds.
This shape makes v and w.

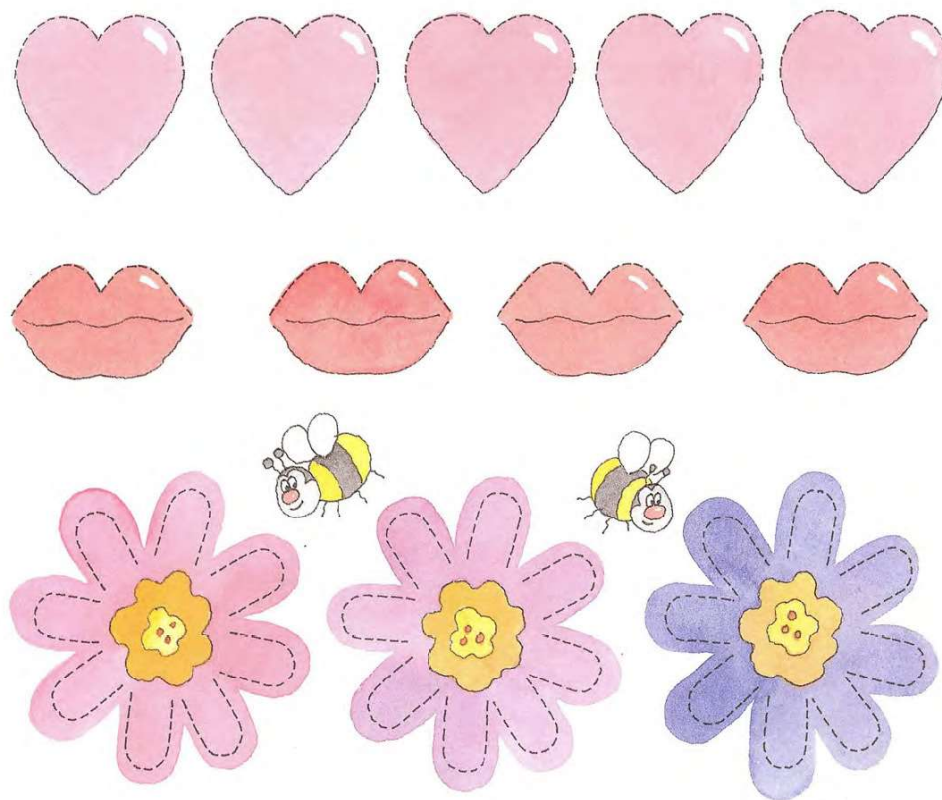

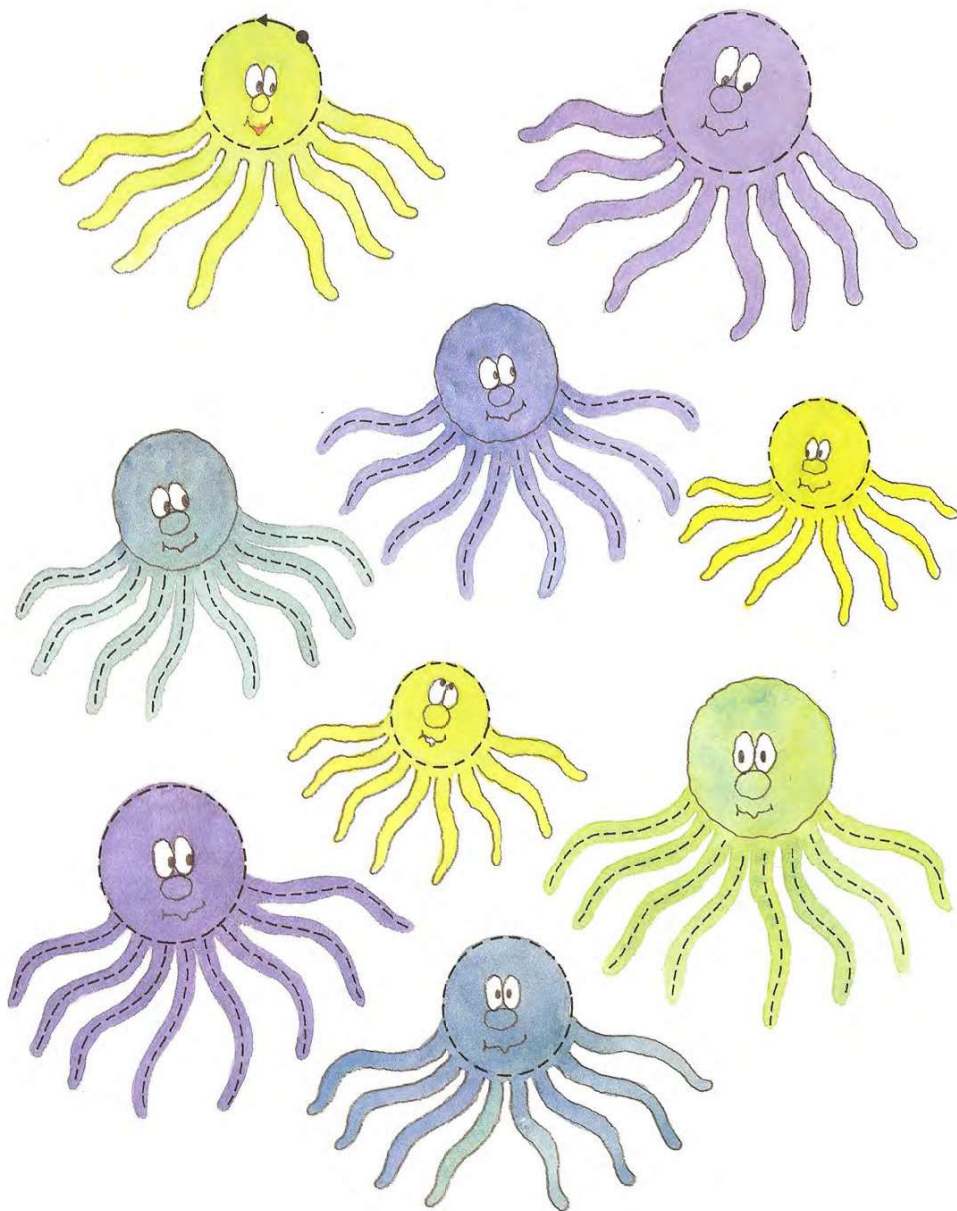

Writing

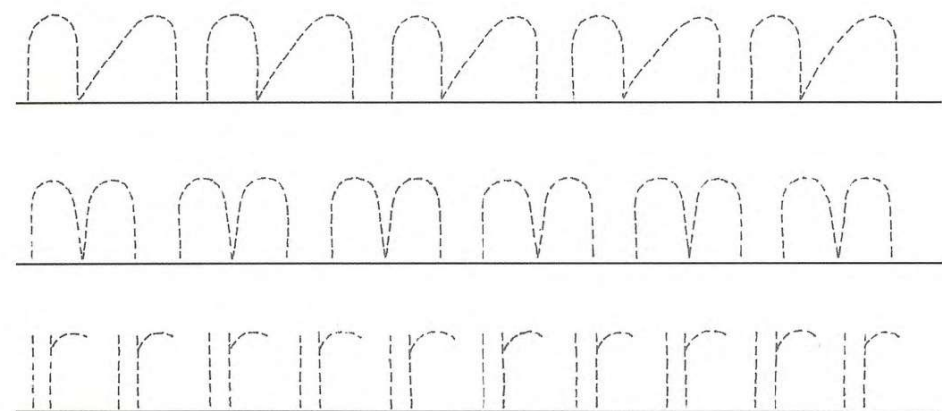

Draw the bubbles that the little girl has blown.

How many octopuses can you count?
Draw their heads and their tentacles.

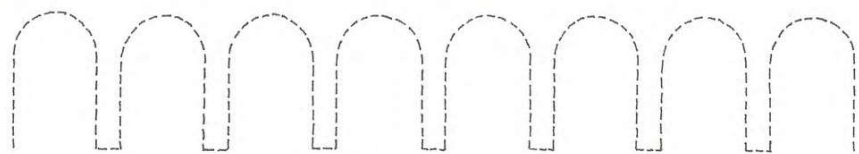

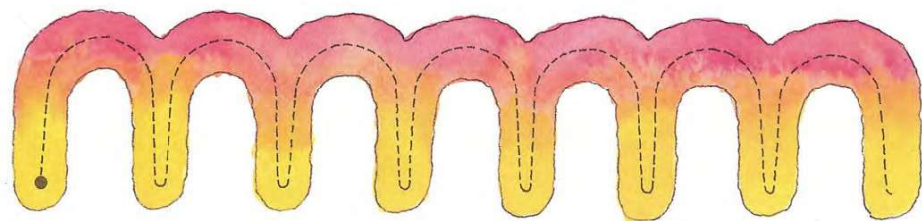

Writing

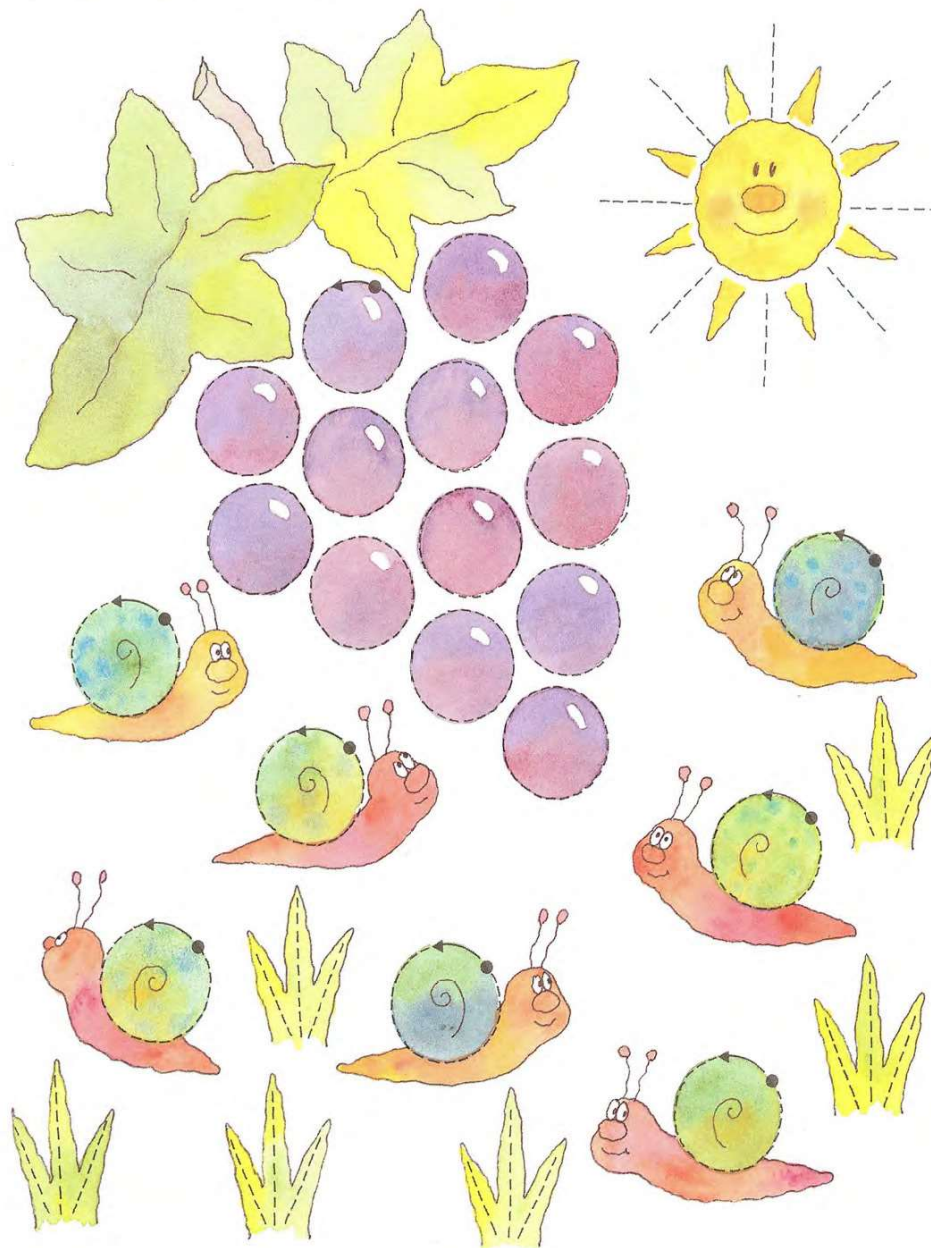

These patterns are for r, n or m.

Writing

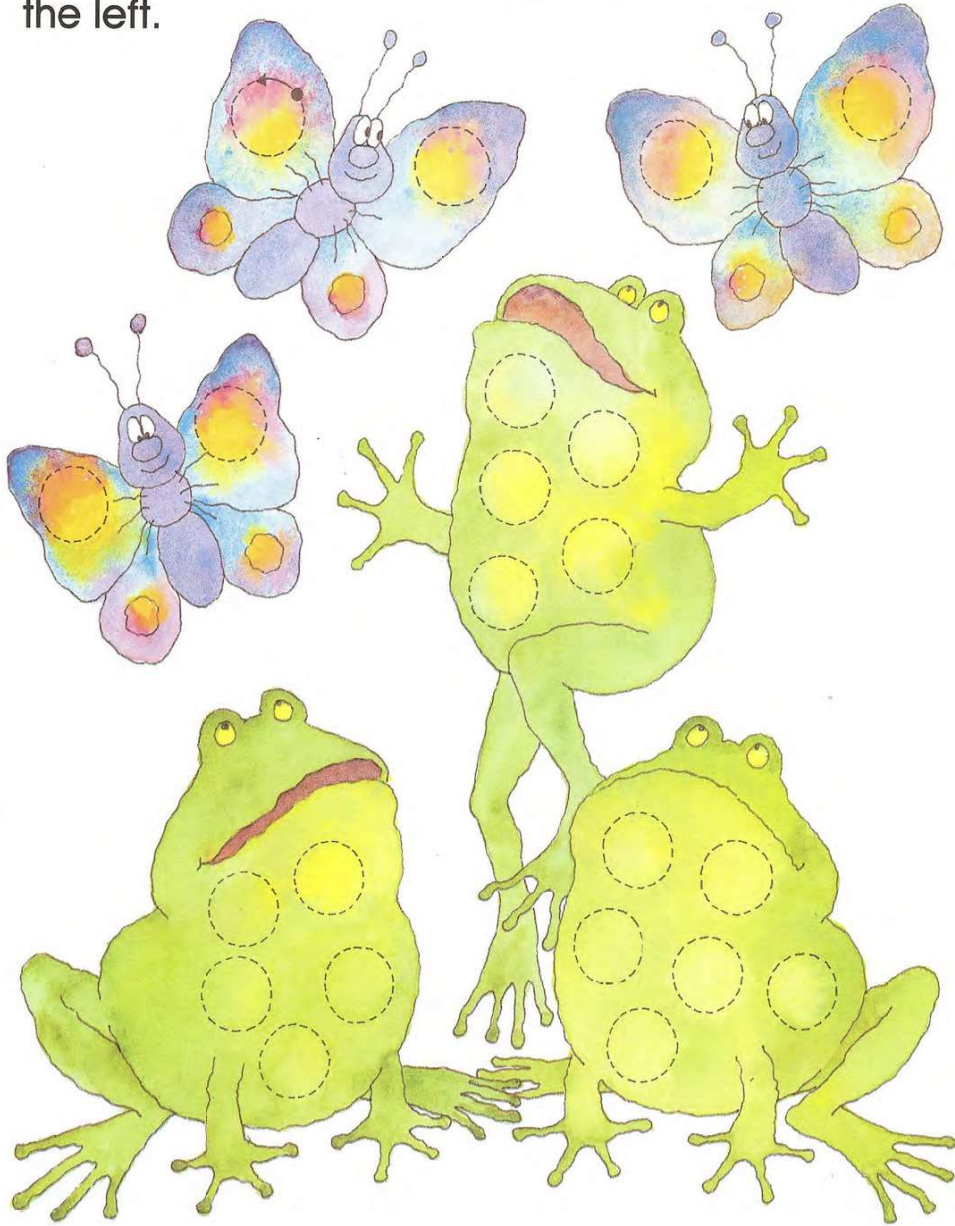

Finish the pictures.
Follow the arrows.

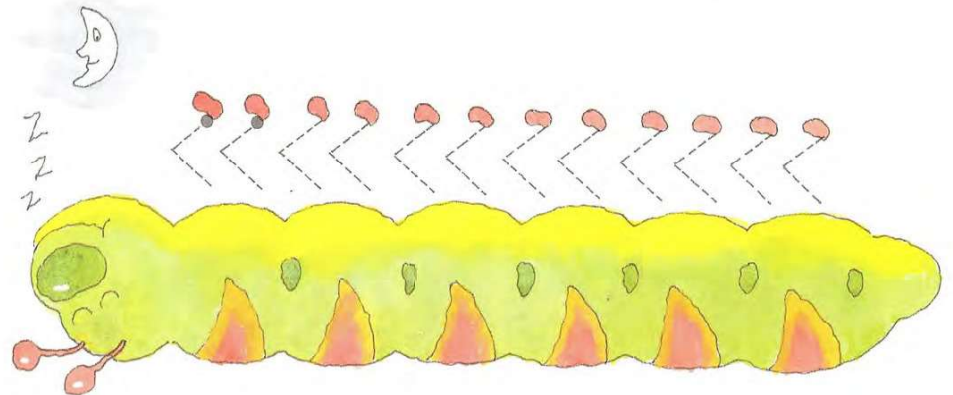

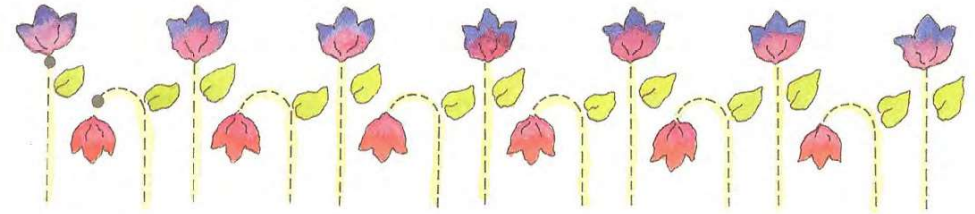

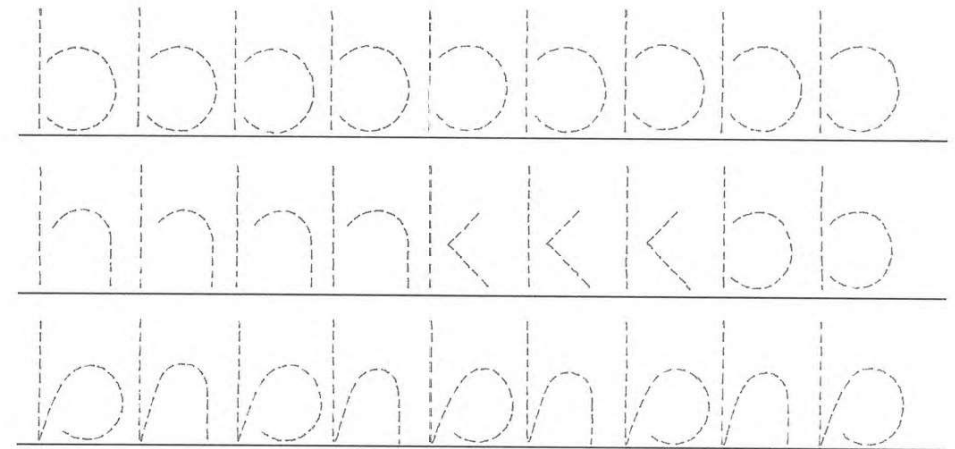

Finish drawing the butterflies and frogs.
Remember to draw circles going round to the left.

Follow the dotted lines and you'll soon be able to write b, k or h.

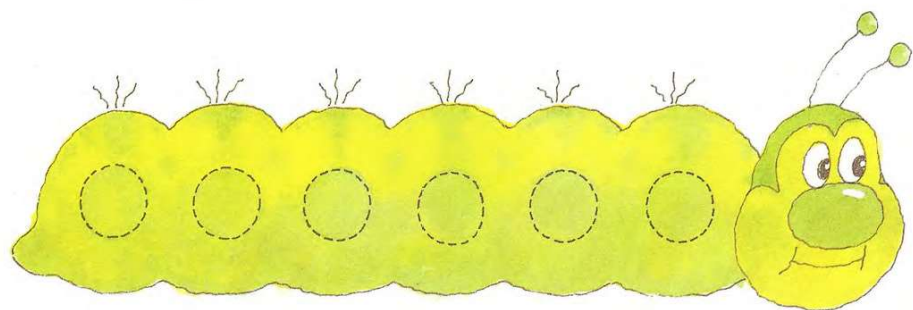

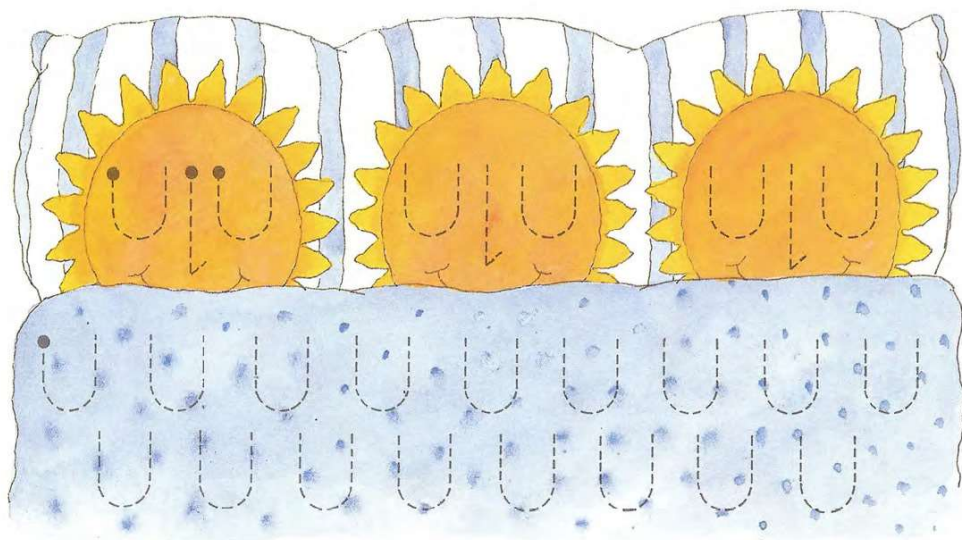

Writing

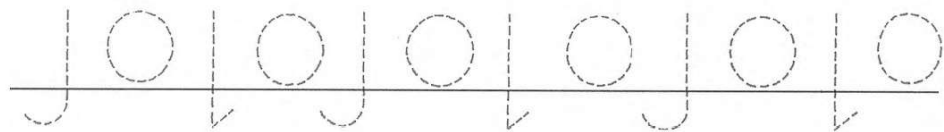

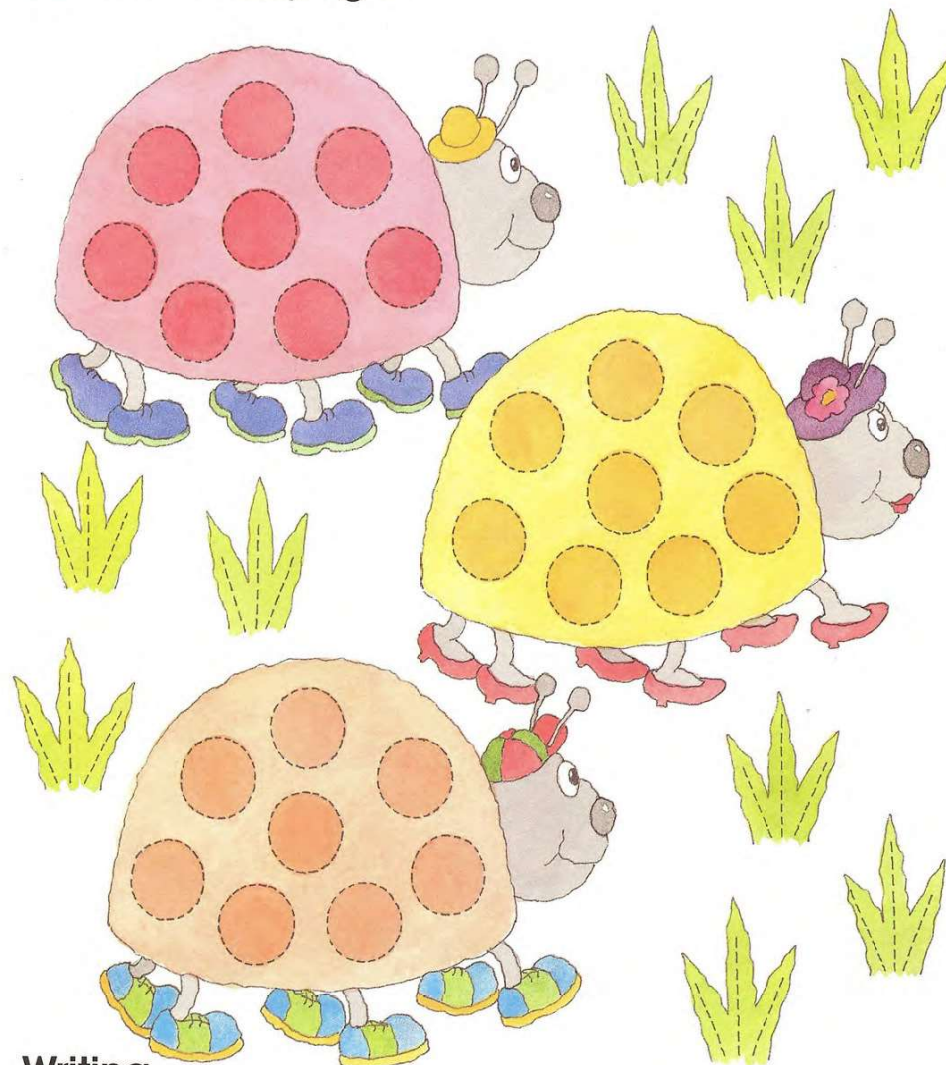

Follow the dotted lines.
These shapes are used for u, y, g or q.

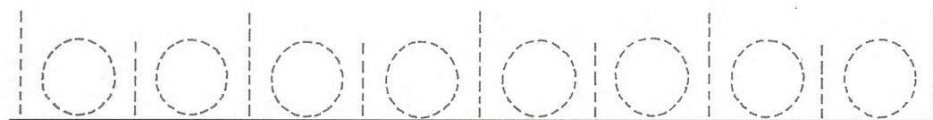

Writing

Finish the pictures then do the writing at the bottom of the page.

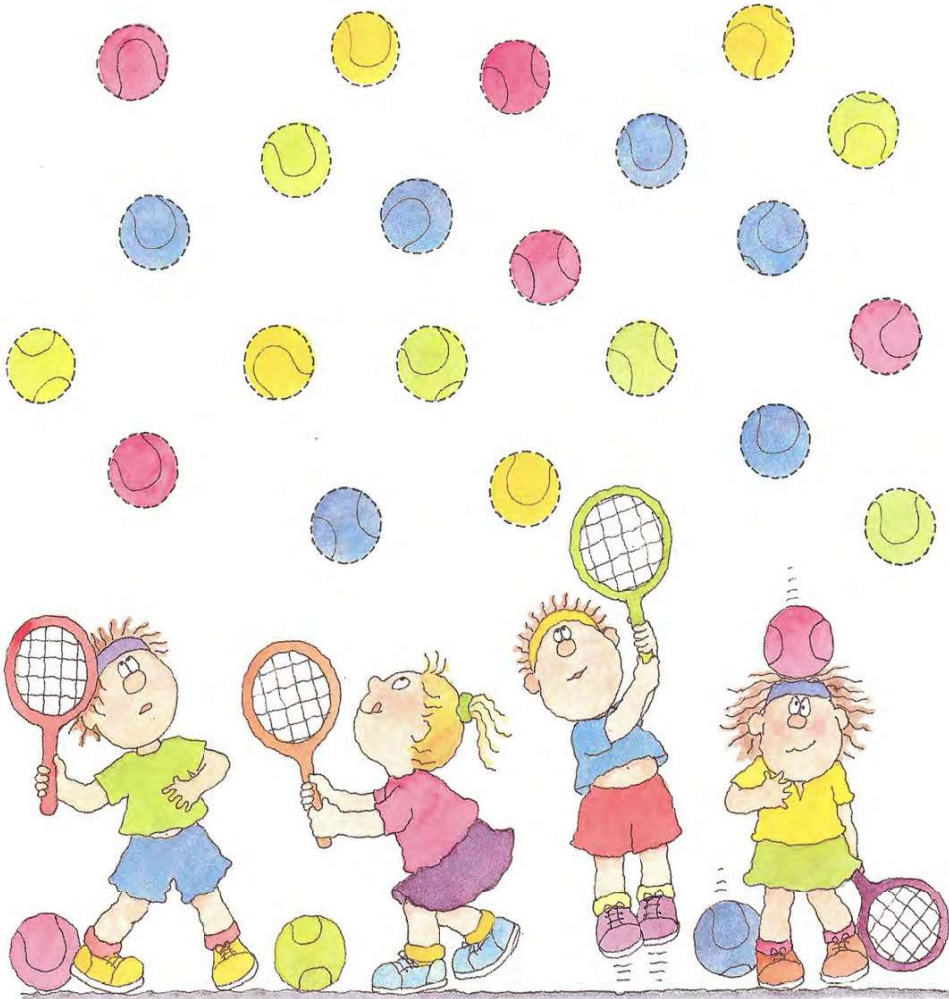

Writing

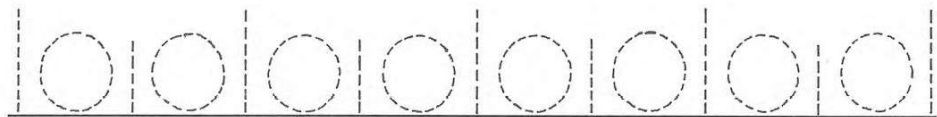

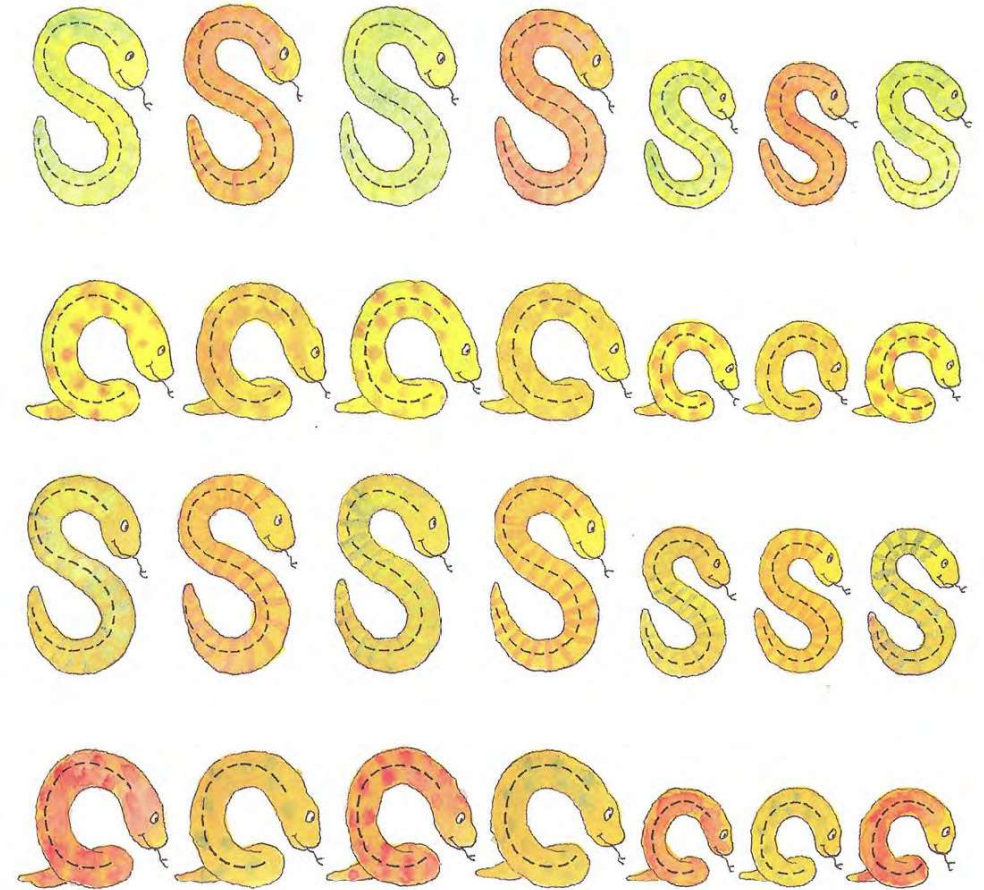

Draw all the tennis balls then do the writing.

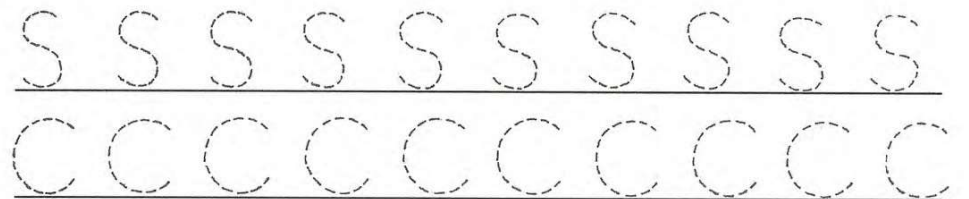

Writing

Follow the dotted lines on the snakes to make s and c.

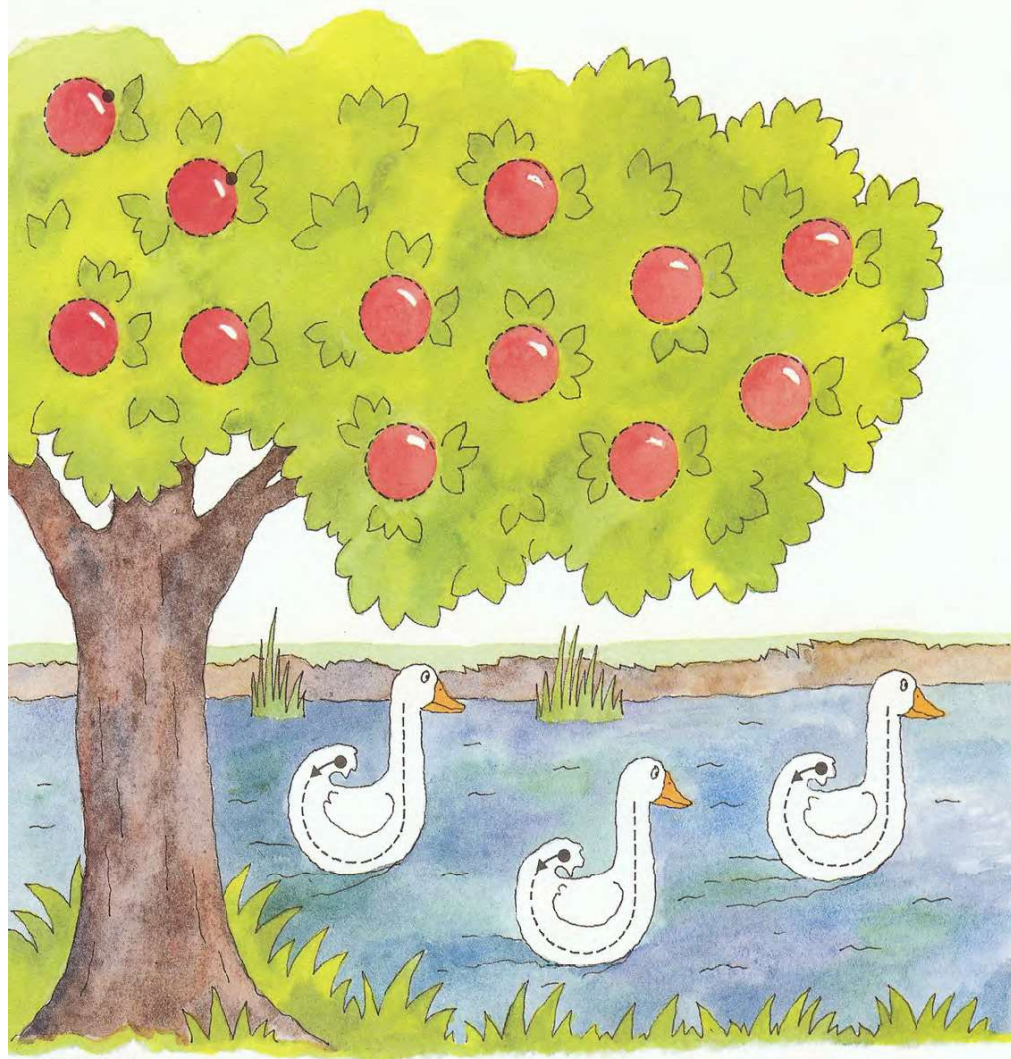

Writing

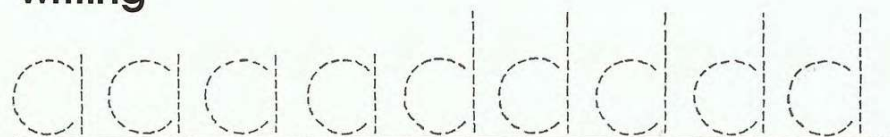

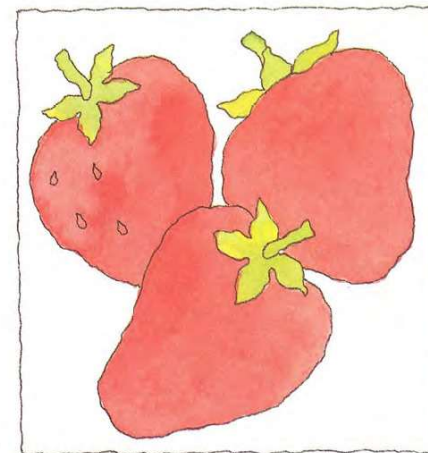

Finish the picture. These shapes are used for a, c and d.

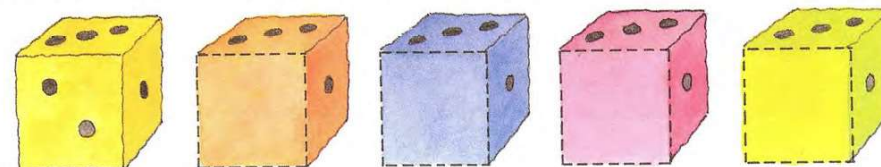

Writing

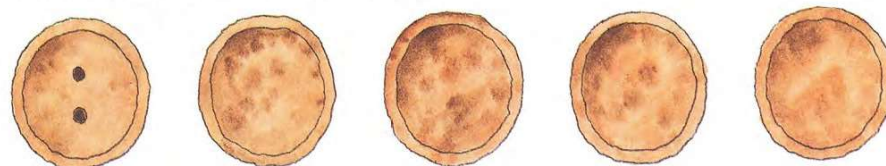

Draw snowflakes round the snowman.
Draw seeds on the strawberries.

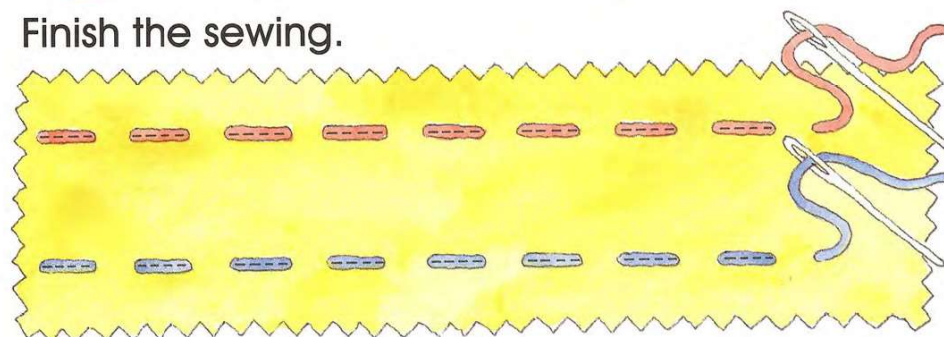

Finish the row of dice.

Finish the row of buttons.

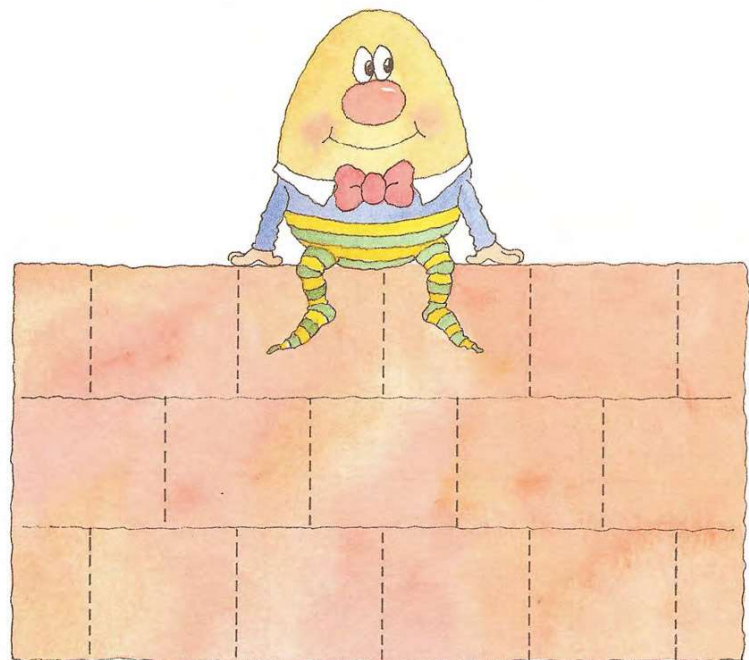

Finish the sewing.

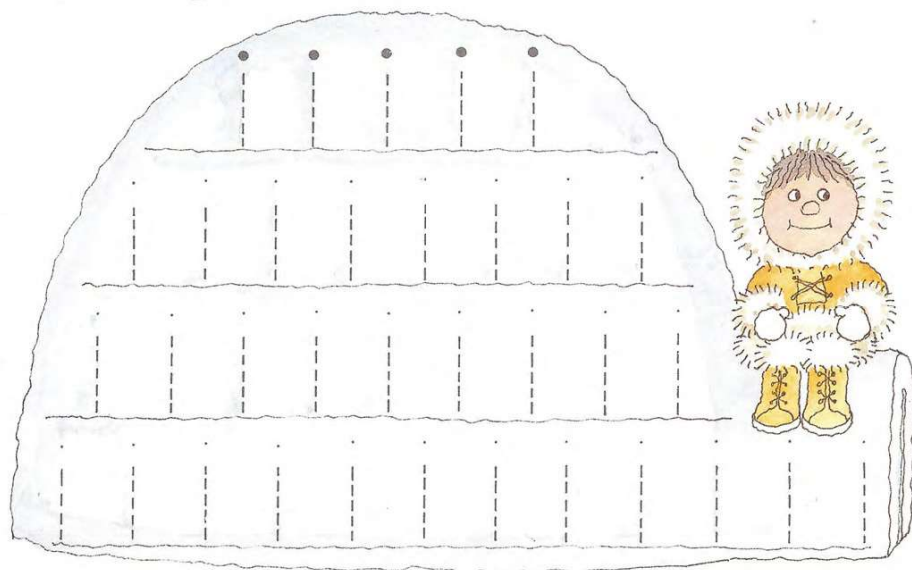

Finish drawing Humpty Dumpty's wall.

Finish the igloo.

Now you can start to make letters. These shapes are used for j, f or t. Follow the dotted lines.

